TE RŪNANGA O NGĀI TE RANGI IWI TRUST

Mana Whenua-Teacher Mātauranga Scholarship CRITERIA

- i. Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Te Rangi Iwi Trust (TRONIT) has the sole discretion to accept or decline an application. Decisions are final and late or incomplete applications will not be accepted. Funding is limited, and scholarships awarded will consider applicants who can demonstrate that they are committed to completing all requirements of their tertiary study.
- ii. The tenure of the scholarship is for the 2025 academic year.
- iii. Scholarships are available to applicants who meet all the criteria below:

Registered members of Ngāi Te Rangi Iwi only

Participate in an Interview

Applying for full or part-time study in an initial approved Teaching qualification programme/course in New Zealand

Currently enrolled in an initial approved Teaching Qualification programme/course in New Zealand

Note: If you are a recipient of another Mana Whenua Scholarship and/or you are receiving multiple Education grants outside of TRONIT for the same Teaching Qualification/course you are not eligible to apply.

Applicants can reapply each year until completion of their Teaching qualification. (To check if you are registered phone (07 575 3765))

- iv. Completed applications and all documentation must be received by no later than Friday 11th of April 2025. The successful applicants will be notified in writing after the deadline date. Unsuccessful applicants will be notified in writing soon after. (Note: It is important to remember that completion of the application does not mean that you will automatically receive a grant).
- v. If an applicant withdraws from their course during the year prior to completing their studies, they must notify TRONIT. TRONIT may require the applicant to repay the grant funding in part or whole.
- vi. Closing date for all applications is Friday 11th April, of which all requirements (noted on the last page of this application form) must be met.
